

Finders Keepers

Listen for a ringing sound and a laugh, and you might hear Finders Keepers singing. We are a women's barbershop quartet singing jazz, gospel and other popular songs from throughout the past century. Karen, singing tenor, lives in Matthews, NC and is an assistant elementary school teacher. Singing the lead part is Cindy, who is a family nurse practitioner in adolescent medicine from Concord, NC. Singing baritone is Vickey, who is a project manager of information systems for the Cato Corporation and lives in Pageland, SC. The bass part is sung by Becky, who is an office assistant at the Charlotte/Mecklenburg Police Department, and lives in Belmont, NC. We compete in singing performance contests as members of Sweet Adelines International, one of the largest singing organizations for women in the world. We have been singing and making mischief together since 2005. Please contact us if you need a fun and unique performer at your next party, meeting or convention!
